

ODOR REDUCTION GASKET

An extruded neoprene gasket can be attached to a steel trough frame door to create a seal whenever the cover is closed. This feature helps reduce the amount of noxious odors escaping from the vault area below the hatch.

